DTCC Guidelines for Acceptable Event Behavior

At DTCC events all participants can freely and openly share ideas in a friendly, safe, and welcoming environment that encourages and inspires mutual respect and collaboration. Attendees, speakers, sponsors and others should treat all other attendees with dignity and respect.

Misunderstandings sometimes do occur, and people should work things out between themselves in a courteous and respectful manner whenever possible. Otherwise, seek the advice of a member of the DTCC staff or board of directors, or a mutually trusted third party.

Harassment of attendees is not tolerated in any form. If you feel threatened or violated as a result of intimidating, harassing, abusive, discriminatory, derogatory or demeaning conduct, please immediately notify a member of the DTCC staff or board of directors.
